JOHN P. CRONAN, United States District Judge:

This is a criminal case against Justin Hampton, the defendant. Mr. Hampton has been charged with committing federal crimes in an Indictment returned by a grand jury sitting in this District. The Indictment itself is not evidence. It simply contains the charges that the Government is required to prove beyond a reasonable doubt. There are four separate charges, or “counts,” contained in the Indictment. Broadly speaking, the charges in the Indictment allege that Mr. Hampton participated in conspiracy with others to commit robberies in New York City in October and November 2021. Count One charges that from at least in or about October 2021 through in or about November 2021, Mr. Hampton participated in a conspiracy to rob commercial establishments, such as convenience stores, dollar stores, and restaurants in the Bronx, Brooklyn, and Queens, New York. Count Two charges that on or about October 19, 2021, Mr. Hampton robbed a Family Dollar store in the Bronx, New York. Count Three charges that on or about November 10, 2021, Mr. Hampton robbed a Little Caesars pizza restaurant in the Bronx, New York. And Count Four charges that Mr. Hampton used, carried, and possessed a firearm and aided and abetted the use, carrying, and possession of a firearm, in connection with the robbery alleged in Count Two and in furtherance of the robbery alleged in Count Two.

Mr. Hampton has entered a not guilty plea as to all charges. He is presumed innocent. The United States has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Mr. Hampton is guilty of one or both of the charges.

16. Have you ever lobbied, petitioned, or worked in any other manner for or against any laws or regulations relating to firearms?
17. Do you believe that the federal government should not have laws that limit a person's right to possess a firearm in certain circumstances?

33. To your knowledge, are you currently under subpoena or about to be subpoenaed in a federal case?
34. Do you have any feelings regarding the criminal justice system in this country, including but not limited to your feelings about judges, lawyers, and law enforcement officers, that might make it difficult for you to be a fair and impartial juror in this case?
35. Do you have any religious, philosophical, or other beliefs that would make you unable to render a verdict for reasons unrelated to the law and the evidence?
36. Do you have any biases or prejudices that would affect your ability to serve as a fair and impartial juror in this case?
37. The witnesses in this case may include law enforcement witnesses. Would you be more likely to believe a witness merely because he or she is a member of a law enforcement agency?
38. Would you be less likely to believe a witness merely because he or she is a member of a law enforcement agency?
39. You may also hear testimony from expert witnesses. Have you had any experiences with experts, or do you have any general feelings about the use of experts, that would make it difficult for you to render a fair and impartial verdict?
40. Would you be unable to follow my instruction that the Government is not required to use any particular investigative technique to uncover evidence of or to prosecute a crime?
41. Some of the evidence that may be introduced in this case may come from searches performed by law enforcement officers. If any such evidence is presented to you, the searches were legal, and the evidence obtained from the searches is admissible in this case. Do you have strong feelings about searches conducted by law enforcement officers, or the use of evidence obtained from searches at trial, that might prevent you from being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

42. Some of the evidence in this trial may be presented in the form of information from cellphones.

If any such evidence is presented to you, that evidence was lawfully obtained. Do you have any strong feelings about the use of such evidence that might make it difficult for you to be a fair and impartial juror in this case?

43. You may hear evidence of criminal activity committed by people other than Mr. Hampton.

Those other individuals are not on trial here. You also may not draw any inference from that fact and must not speculate as to why they are not on trial at this time. Would you be unable to follow this instruction or, for this reason, unable to render a fair and impartial verdict?

44. The following are legal principles that apply in every criminal case. Would you, for any reason, be unable to follow any of these legal principles?

- a. Mr. Hampton is presumed innocent.
- b. The Government has the burden of proof at trial.
- c. The Government must prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt.
- d. The jury's verdict must be unanimous.
- e. Mr. Hampton does not have to testify or present any defense, and the jury is not permitted to consider that fact in any way in deciding whether or not the Government has proved that he is guilty.
- f. A defendant's silence cannot be held against him or her.

45. The function of the jury is to decide questions of fact. However, when it comes to the law, you must listen to my instructions and accept the law as I explain it. Do you have any hesitation or unwillingness to apply the law as I explain it even if you disagree with the law or if it conflicts with what you think the law should be?

46. Are you unable to accept that the question of punishment is for me as the judge alone to decide and that the possible punishment must not enter into the deliberation of the jurors as to whether the defendant on trial here is guilty or not guilty?
47. It is not a particularly pleasant duty to find someone else guilty of committing a crime. Do you feel that even if the evidence established the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, you might not be able to render a guilty verdict for reasons unrelated to the law and the evidence?
48. Do you feel that, if you find that the evidence does not establish the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, you might not be able to render a not guilty verdict for reasons unrelated to the law and the evidence?
49. Do you have any reservations about discussing your opinions with other people?
50. Do you have any reservations about sitting in judgment of others?
51. Under your oath as a juror, you are not to be swayed by sympathy. You are to be guided solely by the evidence in this case, and the law as I will charge you. Are you unable to accept my instruction that you are not to be swayed by sympathy of any kind?
52. I may instruct you to absolutely avoid reading, watching, or listening to media reports concerning this case, including cover of the case in social media like Facebook, Twitter, and blogs, until the case is over. Will you be unable to follow that instruction?
53. Do you have any medical problems, particularly eyesight or hearing difficulties, which could affect your perception of the proceedings?
54. Are you taking any medication, or do you suffer from any medical condition, that would prevent you from sitting for prolonged periods or giving your full attention to all of the evidence?

55. Do you have any difficulty reading or understanding English?

56. Do you have any COVID-related concerns about the safety of the Courthouse or your commute to the Courthouse that might interfere with your ability to dedicate your full and undivided attention to the evidence in this case or pressure you to reach a verdict or otherwise compromise with other jurors to complete your deliberations faster to avoid exposure to COVID-19?

57. The fundamental issue here is whether there is anything in your personal history or life experience that would prevent you from acting as a fair and impartial juror here. But only you know whether there is some other matter that I did not mention that I should have asked about. Is there anything that would affect your ability to render a fair and impartial verdict in this case or otherwise anything else you feel the parties should know about you?
